It's Scholarship Time

Applications for the Wallsmith and Means scholarships are located on the bulletin board in the CE hallway.

Any member of the church with children or grandchildren enrolled in college may apply. The student must complete an application and write a short page about themselves and what they will be studying in college.

Submit your application to Ruth Ann Mills. The deadline is July 9th.

Thank You!

- Thank you to the Women Walking in Faith for the Ladies Banquet this past Monday evening. A great time was had by all. And the music was fantastic!
- Thank you, gentlemen, for serving and cleaning up at the Ladies Banquet. Your kindness and thoughtfulness was truly appreciated.

Congratulations!

Mike and Barbara Fengya are having a double celebration:

- Grandson David graduated from IU with a Doctor of Physical Therapy.
- Granddaughter Taylor's husband Joshua graduated with a Doctor of Medicine from IU Medical School.

Jim and Sue Winton are also having a double celebration:

- Granddaughter Kathryn Winton graduated from the University of Illinois with a Master's in Social Work.
- Son Keith Winton graduated from the University of Nebraska with a Master's of Divinity and is currently serving a small church in Omaha.

Singers and Musicians Needed

Attention all singers and musicians! Please consider sharing your talent for the Special Music portion of Sunday worship in the summer months while the choir takes a break. If not you, perhaps you know someone who would enjoy the opportunity to sing or play an instrument as an offering of worship to the Lord! Contact me at 317-862-4161 (evenings) to schedule a date for Special Music.
